Eisek Hatorah D'rachmastrivka

Admissions Policy and Procedures

Eisek Hatorah D'Rachmastrivka accepts applications from students of solid intellectual promise and high moral character who can benefit from the educational program offered at the Yeshiva. Students are selected on the basis of their potential growth, measured by past academic performance, scholastic ability, and such personal characteristics as ethical lifestyle, and respect for others. Age, race, color, physical handicap and national origin play no role in these considerations.

Applicants for admission to Eisek Hatorah D'Rachmastrivka must demonstrate a personal commitment to Halachic practice.

Generally, students applying to Eisek Hatorah D'Rachmastrivka must meet one of the following requirements:

1. Have graduated high school and provide evidence of high school graduation.
2. Have completed homeschooling at the secondary level as defined by state law and provide documentation of homeschooling.
3. Meet one of the recognized equivalents. Recognized equivalents include:
    a. A GED certificate.
    b. A certificate or other official completion documentation demonstrating that the student has passed a state-authorized examination (such as the Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC) the High School Equivalency Test (HiSET), or, in California, the California High School Proficiency Exam) that the state recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (certificates of attendance and/or completion are not included in this qualifying category).
    c. An associate's degree.
    d. The successful completion of at least 60 semester or trimester credit hours or 72 quarter credit hours that does not result in the awarding of an associate's degree, but that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree at any institution.
    e. Enrollment in a bachelor's degree program where at least 60 semester or trimester credit hours or 72 quarter credit hours have been successfully completed, including credit hours transferred into the bachelor's degree program.

The institution will maintain documentation of the high school diploma or its recognized equivalent.

Eisek Hatorah D'Rachmastrivka does not utilize an Ability to Benefit test for admitting students.

Any student who wishes to be admitted to Eisek Hatorah D'Rachmastrivka must be on par with the level of studying in the institution, so that he can keep up with his peers.

In order to initiate the application process, we encourage qualified students to contact the Yeshiva at:

60 Sunset Avenue
Staten Island, New York 10314
Phone: (718) 438-5040
Fax: (718) 438-5041

An applicant who wishes to be admitted should send a contact form to be reviewed by the Menahel. Students who are deemed competitive will be invited for an interview and oral exam on previously studied material. The Rosh Yeshiva and Menahel jointly make the final determination as to each applicant's acceptance status.

Upon acceptance, the applicant will receive a letter of acceptance by mail. Post acceptance, the applicant should make an appointment at the administrative offices to sign an admission form, as well as any necessary academic and financial applications.
